

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA
PHILADELPHIA DIVISION

In re:

TERRANCE MAURICE WEBSTER

Case No. 24-13938 (AMC)

Chapter 13

OBJECTION TO CONFIRMATION

Prestige Financial Services, Inc. (“Prestige”), a secured creditor of the Debtor, objects to the Debtor’s Plan for the following reasons:

A. The Plan as proposed violates §1326(a)(1) since it does not provide for payment to Prestige of adequate protection payments. Adequate protection payments should be made to Prestige beginning in November of 2024 at $171.00 per month, being 1.5% of the vehicle value. Payments should be made within 30 days of filing and should continue up to and after confirmation, until regular payments are to be commenced through the Plan to Prestige. Adequate protection payments to Prestige should be given super priority administrative expense status and in all events must be paid prior to payment of any counsel fees to Debtor’s attorney.

B. The vehicle must be insured with comprehensive and collision insurance coverage and liability coverage in accordance with the requirements contained in the contract. Prestige Financial Services must be listed as loss payee or additional insured. The Debtor must provide Prestige with proof that the vehicle is insured in accordance with §1326(a)(4) and this portion of the objection to confirmation should be considered a demand that the Debtor provide proof of insurance.

1 C. Prestige must retain its lien on the vehicle until such time that the Debtor completes
2 his Chapter 13 Plan and receives a discharge.
